

Welcome to your new library: BiblioLab!

On 14 September 2015, BiblioLab will open its doors. You are invited to discover a new space located on level -1 in the "Maison des Sciences Humaines" in Belval. All users on the Belval site will find their library collections there and are encouraged to try out our new services.

What is the concept of BiblioLab?

Better comfort

More workplaces in diversified spaces

Expanded services

Cutting-edge technology

What new services?

A self-service system allows you to borrow or return books on your own and to directly pick-up your reserved items.

➤ Return Shelves

To return borrowed books, just leave them on one of the return shelves.

➤ Self-Service Machines

The self-service machines allow you to borrow books independently and at any time.

➤ Access to Reserved Books

Books reserved via a-z.lu will be made accessible on special shelves. With the help of the self-service machine, you can check them out of the library yourself.

Questions?

The librarians are at your service. They will gladly help you in all matters either at the information counters or in the training room.

BiblioLab will be open Monday through Friday from 8am to 9pm*

 For the first few days after the opening on 14 September, BiblioLab will close at 5pm to allow the installation of some additional furniture whose delivery has been delayed by the supplier.
